OBJECTIVE:

The Indigenous Youth Sport Legacy Fund was created to assist amateur athletes of Indigenous ancestry, including athletes with a disability or disabilities, in their pursuit of excellence in sport. The grant seeks to relieve some of the financial costs associated with high performance sport, including registration, travel, equipment, and coaching expenses. Grants are awarded to athletes competing in any sport, with priority given to athletes participating on regional, provincial, and national teams.

This fund was established as one of the shared legacies of the agreement between The Province, Squamish Nation, Lil'wat Nation, and the Vancouver 2010 Bid Corporation.

The program is funded by the Province, supported by Odium Brown, and administered by viaSport in partnership with the West Vancouver Community Foundation.
