

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

September 30, 2021, marked the first National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, a day that coincides with Orange Shirt Day. It recognizes the tragic legacy of residential schools, the missing children, the families left behind and the survivors of these institutions. The incredible network of provincial, regional, and local sport organizations in BC are passionate about sharing the positive impact of sport, and committed to delivering safe and inclusive programming. From embracing diversity to breaking down barriers, the power of sport transcends competitive athletics to become a catalyst for change and understanding. Start your learning journey by exploring the rich and diverse cultures, voices, experiences and histories of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples
