Beacon HR has been engaged by viaSport to create the HR Toolkit resource and has been providing ad hoc services to BC sport organizations with flexible, people-centric HR support. Through a shared HR model, Beacon offers ESA-compliant guidance, continuity through leadership change, and scalable people systems that reduce risk and leader stress without the cost of in-house HR teams.

Their services include on-call HR support, practical coaching and templates, live workshops, and specialized programs for sport and non-profit organizations. Beacon helps organizations strengthen compliance, retain institutional knowledge, and build sustainable, confident leadership and culture.
